FROM THE WEST.

[From the Reese River Reveille.]

SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.

Advices from Acapulco state that the town was in the hands of the Liberals, and that trade had again opened. The usual supplies for both ship and passengers were to be had. The last of the French men-of-war was still in port, and was understood to be waiting for the mails which were brought through by the Golden Age, after the receipt of which she was to sail.

The U. S. Revenue Assessor imbroglio is not yet ended. The Bigler-Avery case is again coming up for trial on Monday, before Judge Deady, of the U. S. District Court.

The evidence in the case of McCall vs. Gen. McDowell et al. has been taken, and the case postponed for argument. General McDowell testified that he did not know the plaintiff and had ordered his arrest because he had been entreated to do so by Judge Hoffman Mayor Coon and other prominent citizens, and feared that if he did not an affray would take place between the loyalists and secessionists.

The anniversary of the birthday of Saint Patrick is being generally celebrated to-day by Irish citizens. A large military and civic procession is now marching through the streets composed of the Independent Battalion, Jackson Dragoons, and seven or eight literary and benevolent associations. Judge Axtell delivers the oration at Union Hall. The festivities will conclude with the grand ball of the Fenian Brotherhood.

Rev. Father Cotter, last evening, in behalf of the Saint Mary's Society, presented a beautiful banner, of the value of $500, to the Saint Mary's Temperance Society.

The number of deaths in this city for the week ending March 16th, was 46.

The steamship Moses Taylor, with about 500 passengers from New York via Nicaragua, arrived yesterday. No serious sickness on the voyage. The Isthmus is reported free from all epidemics.

Martin Lawer and Patrick Murphy were arrested soon after the arrival of the Moses Taylor, yesterday, charged with robbing J. P. Abbott, a fellow passenger, of a gold watch valued at $150, during the trip from the Isthmus.

A German named Dietrich Rofensberger fell dead at the Chicago Hotel yesterday morning. —The death was caused by aneurism of the aorta.

BENICIA, March 17.

A foot race for $600, between Ploughboy of Vacaville, and Unknown of San Francisco, came off here yesterday—Ploughboy winning by three feet. The distance run was 80 yards. —About a thousand dollars changed hands on the result.

From the North.

The Lewiston Journal of March 1st, furnishes us with the following items.

The stock running on Camas prairie, White Bird creek and Salmon river, appear to be in fine condition.

A town site has been laid out and mapped at Oswego, six miles above Portland on the Willamette. It is the site of the new iron mines and foundry of Oregon, and accessible to vessels of 300 tons burthen.

The Portland prospecting party for the Malheur country, will start from that city about the first of April.

John Fitzhugh and John C. Hannan, two of the ball room rioters, were both indicted for murder in the first degree, at a late special term of court held at Roseburg, Oregon.

Geo. F. Thomas contemplates the establishment of a stage line between Walla Walla, in Washington Territory, and Brown's Mountain House, or Mt. Idaho, in this Territory. Coaches to be put on the line early in the spring. The proprietor expects the enterprise to pay for the investment before the close of the season. Geo. Thomas is the man for the business, should he engage in such an enterprise.

A son of Mr. Truax, died suddenly at Lapwai, on Wednesday morning.

The new Salmon River trail is completed from State Creek, up to within four miles of Allison's Ranch—and the work is still going forward.

The snow at Warrens is from five to six feet in depth—at Florence, about the same depth. At Oro Fino about four feet; on the mountains this side of these camps it is from six to eight feet deep. On Craig's mountain about four feet.

It has stormed much in these mountain districts during the last two weeks. There will be no lack of water for mining in these camps the coming season.

No snow on Camas prairie or on lower Salmon river, and none near Lewiston.

Mr. Davis Evans came in again on Sunday last from the Palouse mines, whither he is making regular trips with his train. He reports considerable work being done. The Chinamen have bought the Kelly claims and paid the cash down, and are negotiating for the Colerick claim, which is held at five thousand dollars. The Franklin Company are at work about a mile and a half from Grant Creek, and making an average of ten dollars a day to the hand. The Peterson Company is located on what is called Big Creek and have good eight dollar diggings.

The snow has fallen recently to the depth of three feet, which with the freezing at night [illegible] interfere somewhat with the working, but there is no difficulty in traveling anywhere, though the grass, timber and water being plenty. He recommends to his friends who [illegible] mine to go out prospecting, however, to wait for a thaw, say two or three weeks.

Temperance in Congress.

However much partisans, and those who are not partisans, may differ concerning the action of Congress and Congressmen, the latter have recently inaugurated a movement which will be hailed with satisfaction all over the land. We refer to the organization of an association called the "Congressional Temperance Society." We have become so accustomed to hearing Congress abused by the press, for acts of omission and commission; so many complaints coming up from all quarters against members of Congress, until the doctrine of "total depravity," so far as concerned public officers, has attained very general credence, that we are glad to hear of something on their part which extorts universal commendation.

There can be no doubt that what we Americans term, and so loudly boast of as, the liberty of the press, has degenerated in too many instances into utter, unmitigated licentiousness. Nor can there be any doubt that the flippancy and ease with which public men are assailed, and charged with the most heinous offences, has tended much not only to corrupt the morals and lower the standard of our public officers, but, also to bring journalism itself into disrepute. To give credence to the articles of many newspaper writers, one would be induced to believe that Member of Congress was but a synonym for all that is licentious, depraved and demoralizing, and that our Representatives, in the main, are common drunkards. These glowing philipics, however, are rather too highly colored, as all know who have ever spent a winter in Washington.

Our Representatives are neither better nor worse, morally considered, than other men. Nevertheless it is a fact that can be neither denied nor concealed, that intemperance at Washington, as elsewhere, is the great evil of the day. Indeed, from one end of the land to the other the baleful effects of whisky drinking are plain, apparent, palpable. Perhaps it is not exaggeration to say that seven-tenths of all the crime, misery, poverty, and folly of the day is attributable directly or indirectly to intoxicating liquors. The country will hail, then, this new movement in the cause of temperance by Senators and Representative as a hopeful sign. The benefits likely to flow from the personal abstemiousness of our public men will not be light, but the example they thus set to the entire country cannot fail to be productive of the happiest results. Our attention has been particularly directed to this subject by the perusal of an eloquent and touching address delivered by Senator Yates, on Sunday evening, February 17th, in the Hall of Representatives, at a great temperance meeting held by the Congressional Temperance Society. The meeting was presided over by Senator Wilson, of Massachusetts. Senator Yates, a gentleman of acknowledged ability, late Governor of Illinois, and one of her foremost orators and patriots, now occupies the important position of Chairman of the Senate Committee on Territories. For upwards of a quarter of a century he has been in public life, and the only serious charge ever urged against him has been that of intemperance. In his speech, after having "with one look to God and one to home, signed the pledge," he says that it had been published all over the land that he was a drunkard, and, he continues:

"Fellow citizens, while there was some truth in this, there was a vast deal of error. * * * Whatever I have done for the last seventeen years—whether I had to make a speech to a political meeting; whether I spoke against the Nebraska bill upon the floor of this House; whether, as Governor, I wrote a message, or published a proclamation, or prorogued a secession Legislature, [great applause,] the universal charge of the opposite party was that all these acts were done under the influence of whisky. [Laughter.] Now, fellow citizens, I have concluded to put a stop to this matter. I never intend that they (the editors and reporters) shall have any license or authority to publish me as a drunkard again, even if I have to abstain, as I will abstain, from the mildest glass of claret that ever the fair hand of the fairest lady in this land should present to me. [Applause.]"

A noble resolution, and a hopeful one, for Richard Yates is not the man to violate his solemn pledge. The entire speech glows with feeling and pathos, and sparkles with gems of eloquence. We have but space for the following extracts:

"I will stop it. I have promised God; I have promised my country; I have promised that proud Commonwealth which for twenty-five consecutive years has honored me with all her public positions, in the Legislature, as Governor, as member of both Houses of Congress; I have promised all who love me, and I have promised Katie and the children—[loud applause]—that I will never touch, taste or handle the unclean thing—[applause]—and by the blessing of God and my own unfaltering purpose, I intend to fight it out on this line to the last day in the evening of my life. [Applause.] If all you, gentlemen, would do the same thing, you would lose nothing in mind, body or estate. [Laughter.]"

There is something so touching in the following that we cannot resist quoting it. In that one letter alone must the Senator have seen his reward for the noble resolution taken:

"After I signed this temperance pledge I wrote to a little lady out in Illinois, who weighs about a hundred pounds, has black hair and flashing black eyes, and 'a form fairer than Grecian chisel ever woke from Parian marble,' and I received the following answer:

'MY DEAR RICHARD:—How beautiful is this morning; how bright the sun shines; how sweetly our birds sing; how joyous the children; how happy is my heart. I see the smile of God. He has answered the prayer. Always proud of your success, you have now achieved that success which God and angels will bless. It is the shining summit of human aspiration, for you have conquered yourself. All who love you will aid you to keep the pledge. I love you, my dear boy. KATIE.

Love, the sun, soul and centre of the moral universe;
Love, which links angel to angel, and God to man;
Love, which binds in one two loving hearts.
How beautiful is love!" [Applause.]

Can it be doubted that such demonstrations will be productive of the highest and happiest results?

[SPECIAL TO THE "DAILY UNION VEDETTE."]

New York, March 24.

Advices by the Rising Star from Panama to the 13th, say three American ships lately took fire at Valparaiso and burned to the waters edge; the George Raines, Feb. 9th, the Flora McDonald and George, Feb. 16th. It is suspected they were fired by their crews.

Acting President and Prefect Juanito Diaz was shot in Panama, on the 10th, by a drunken man. The wound is serious.

The steamer Raino, formerly the R. R. Cuyler, had reached Santa Marta from New York. This is the vessel seized here on suspicion of being a Chilean privateer.

Much excitement existed in Bogota owing to differences between President Mosquera and Congress, the latter refusing to acknowledge the loans made by the former.

The aborigines of New Zealand are again giving trouble.

Chilean advices state that Peru never thought of peace on the basis proposed by the mediating powers.

The latest advices respecting the Argentine revolution are important. A division under Felipe Saa, after a bloody engagement, was defeated by General Pannero, at Los Loros.

New York, March 24.

The Herald's Rio Janeiro correspondent, of the 24th ult., says nothing is transpiring beyond an occasional bombardment of Curupaity by the Paraguayans, and picket firing along the line. Reinforcements continue to leave Rio Janeiro. Two steamers with Argentine and Oriental troops on board exploded, and quite a number of lives were lost. An Argentine war steamer had been run down the Mondozo. The rebellion was nearly suppressed. United States intervention is talked of, but not generally expected.

A conspiracy to murder the members of the Government of Buenos Ayers had been discovered, and the conspirators seized.

St. Domingo advices, to the 11th inst., state that the Boez party have been crushed, and the Republic is quiet.

The proposed treaty with the United States for the Bay of Samara, is likely to elicit a spirited debate in Congress.

New York, March 24.

Jas. F. Cummings, ex-rebel commissary, has been arrested on a charge of having used the power of the Confederate government to take from a resident of Tennessee, property valued at $600,000, and fraudulently converted it to his own use, and is now in jail.

Counterfeit twenties on the National Bank, Portland, Maine, are in circulation.

Judge Russell yesterday refused bail in the case of Wall, the alleged Marshal of the St. Patrick's Day procession, who cut and lashed a policeman with a sword.

John Savage, Judge Daly, and Eugene Kelly who were, unknown to themselves, appointed to receive Fenian funds by the Union Square meeting, decline to have anything to do with the matter.

New York, March 24.

The friends of Alexander H. Stephens, say he counsels the Southern people to remain quiet and await the issue of events, as nothing in the South can influence the policy of the dominant party.

Advices from North Alabama represent the people living at a distance from the railroads, as dying of starvation. Unless relief reaches them, the whole range of counties in the Sand Mountain section will be depopulated. The floods have destroyed a large quantity of food sent for the relief of the sufferers.

The Ocean Queen, detained by the storm since the 21st, put to sea this morning. Rising Star, from Panama, brought $840,000 in specie.

Washington, March 24.

The Secretary of State has received information, dated Feb. 14th, from the Consul at Queenstown, Ireland, that the cholera prevailed in that section, to some extent, this winter. At White Gate, a small village on Queenstown harbor, eight cases occurred during the previous week.

New York, March 25.

The Herald's Panama correspondence says, a British frigate appeared off Carthagena on the 28th of February, and the Captain addressed a note to the President, insisting that the British Consul should receive the mails before they were sent to the local post-offices, and that the President should apologize for past offences in respect to the matter. The President evaded any decided answer to these propositions. A war steamer, in the service of Mosquera, came into port in the meanwhile and was seized by the Englishmen, and their demands reiterated, with threats of taking other measures in the event of a non-compliance, and the President, fearing a bombardment, succumbed and apologized, and promised to do better in future.

Ex-rebel General Longstreet has expressed his opinion on the reconstruction plan, in the columns of the New Orleans Times. He says there is no humiliation attached to an acceptance of the terms proposed by Congress, and he has no reason to doubt that such an acceptance in good faith, will secure the re-admission of the Southern States.

The Fenian Senate adjourned, Saturday, to meet this morning at ten o'clock. The session is still secret, but it is understood that the chief work before that body is the appointment of a Secretary of War, in place of General Sweeney.

A Times' special says, that if Congress shall adjourn on Tuesday or Wednesday next, as is now almost certain, the President will issue, on the day of adjournment, a proclamation calling an extra session of the Senate for Executive business, especially to consider nominations for official positions. The President has been urged by prominent Republicans and others to release Jeff. Davis upon his own recognizance, because there is no prospect of Chief Justice Chase holding a court in Virginia so long as that State is under the control of military authority, he deeming it beneath the dignity of a Judge of the Supreme Court to preside on a district under such control. There is good reason for saying that within the next ten days, Davis will be released on his own recognizance, to answer when called upon.

It is now stated, on good authority, that Mr. Foster will not receive the appointment of Minister to Austria.

Pittsburg, Penn., March 24.

The works of Robinson, Rea & Co., South Pittsburgh, including a large stock of patterns, were burned this morning. Loss, $70,000.

Baltimore, March 24.

The State Legislature adjourned yesterday, sine die.

The bill admitting negroes to testify on the same footing as whites in the courts of the State, failed to pass.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE.]

London, March 24.

Government has published the correspondence of the English and French Cabinets in regard to the illegal extradition of Lamarinde, and the subsequent demand of England for his surrender.

Dublin, March 24.

The trial of Fenian prisoners for high treason, will commence April 9th, in this city.

IMPORTANT ARRESTS.—The Idaho World, of March 18th, says that during the week three very important arrests have been made, of persons implicated in bogus gold dust transactions. The first was made on Saturday evening by Sheriff Crutcher, assisted by his Deputies Gorman, Rowe and Douglass, and Constables Fagan and Wilson. The person was Mrs. Duncan. On entering her house Sheriff Crutcher was met by the desperate woman at the door. She quickly presented a revolver at his head, but after some trouble and resistance on her part she was arrested, disarmed, and taken away. A search of her house discovered extraordinary preperations for a vigorous and desperate defense. Nearly a dozen fire-arms were found, and in the loft a furnace in which no doubt the bogus dust manufacturing had been carried on. Broken crucibles, and other utensils for the infamous traffic, were also found. On being brought before Justice Donaho she waived examination, and was sent to prison in default of $2,000 bonds.

On Monday, R. C. Leighton, of this city, who was already under $1,000 bonds for a similar offence, was again arrested by Captain Fagan, on a new complaint for passing bogus dust. An examination was had before Justice Donaho on Tuesday, and the accused committed to prison in default of $1,000 additional bonds. That same day Deputy Sheriff Gorman arrested Mrs. Landen of Buena Vista Bar on the charge of passing bogus dust. After a lengthy and searching examination before Justice Donaho, conducted for the prosecution by Judge May, assisted by Geo. Ainslie and R. E. Foote, Esqs., and for the defence by Frank Ganahl and W. R. Keithly, Esqs., the accused was committed to prison in default of $1.500 bonds. In these arrests and examinations, great credit is due to the skill, the sagacity and courage of Sheriff Crutcher and his Deputies, to Captain Fagan, the officer of Justice Donaho's court, and to the high ability, sterling honesty, manifest impartiality and resolute decision of Justice Donaho, who has proved himself a most competent and upright magistrate.

NEVADA LEGISLATURE.—The Enterprise, of the 18th, contains the following:

The Ormsby County Grand Jury is investigating numerous charges of bribery and corruption peferred against the members of the present Legislature, and the chances are that several bills of indictment will be found. The following was sent to us from Carson, yesterday, with the explanation that it was found on the street and had probably been considered by the Grand Jury:

We, the Grand Jurors of Ormsby County, do most earnestly and respectfully recommend to His Excellency the Governor, that he call the attention of the present legislative body now in session, to the importance of making an appropriation to Ormsby County for the purpose of prosecuting the cases of fraud and bribery committed during the late Senatorial contest; fearing, as we do, that if such appropriation be not made, owing to the present embarrassed financial condition of this county, and the number and enormity of the crimes committed, we will be unable to prosecute the cases with that diligence which we believe the people of this State demand. Relying on the magnanimity and generosity of the present unselfish, august assemblage and your own good judgment, we respectfully submit the matter for your consideration.

As the clerk of the Assembly Corruption Committee cannot be found, and the report is therefore missing, the Legislature might as well appropriate a few dollars to assist the Grand Jury in ferreting out some of the rascalities of the members.

LOVE, JEALOUSY AND ARSENIC.—The Louisville (Ky.) Courier of February 8th says: Yesterday morning Belle Johnson, alias Belle Hoover, a well known courtesan, died at a house of prostitution on Floyd street, between Walnut and Lafayette, kept by Lizzie McAvoy, from the effects of a dose of arsenic, administered by herself the previous evening.

The cause of the rash act, as stated by herself, was the inconstancy and desertion of her lover, a young man whose name, on account of his respectable connections, we suppress. The woman was about 19 years of age, and was a native of Indiana, and for some time resided in Indianapolis with her mother and stepfather, her own parents having been divorced. About three years ago she left home on account of the ill-treatment she received at the hands of her stepfather, and commenced a life of infamy at the house of a woman named Jenny Riley. About a year ago she formed an intimacy with a youth scarcely out of his teens, a resident of this city. This continued until a few weeks ago, when the young man, either from a desire to abandon his dissolute habits, or allured by a more attractive face, discontinued his visits to her, since which time she has been low-spirited, and finally put an end to her life.

A YEAR'S MISSIONARY WORK IN JAPAN.—Rev. D. Thompson, American Missionary at Yokohama, writes that the year has been prosperous. Good progress has been made in learning the language, modes of thought and general character of the people. In proportion as their ability to teach is improved, their opportunities of communicating instruction are increased. Dr. Hepburn has kept his dispensary in operation with much good will of the people; but he is obliged now to be absent some months at Shanghae to print the Japanese Dictionary. A number of promising pupils are under instruction and making good progress. The people show less distrust and hostility, and there is a probability that political changes will be more favorable to foreign intercourse.

HOMICIDE IN KNIGHTS FERRY.—The Stockton Independent, of February 18th, says: The tidings of a homicide having been perpetrated at Knights Ferry on Friday last, we received on Saturday. The particulars of the affair, as far as are yet known to us, were given by Mr. Moss, driver of the Sonora stage, on Friday last, and published in Saturday evening's Herald as follows:

A terrible affair was witnessed at Knights Ferry on Friday forenoon, which terminated in the killing of two men, Mr. McGinnis and George F. Cheshire. Cheshire was a school teacher, and turned a daughter of McGinnis, aged seventeen years, out of school. For this McGinnis sent the teacher word he would horsewhip him. On Friday forenoon McGinnis attacked Cheshire, when the teacher succeeded in getting him down two or three times, the last time telling McGinnis if he again attacked him he would shoot him. McGinnis again approached Cheshire, when the teacher shot four balls from a revolver into the body of McGinnis, killing him on the spot. This was in the presence of the school children. A son of McGinnis soon after shot the teacher, the ball entering the head of Mr. Cheshire a little above the right ear, passing through the brain, and striking the skull on the opposite side so as to make it bulge out. The ball then glanced down to the lower portion of the brain, the probe failing to reach it. Mr. Moss, the driver of the Sonora stage, when passing through Knights Ferry on Friday, says Cheshire was still living, although, of course, with no chance for his recovery.

KILLING BEEVES.—The old plan of killing cattle is to knock them down by hitting them on the head with an ax, and then cutting their throats, which is both brutal and unclean. In California we use the rifle in place of the ax, and this is the preferable mode; but still it causes the animals much pain, for the death is not sudden. A butchering establishment in New Jersey has adopted a new and better mode—one which causes death instantaneously. In Spain, Mexico and South America, where bull fights are the national pastime, the bull that will fight is always killed in the ring. After the matadore has plunged his sword between his shoulders into his heart, the bull staggers and falls, and then a party sticks a little poignard into the spinal marrow, just behind the horns, when instantly the animal dies. And from this have the Jerseymen been taught how to kill. There, a man with a spear stands above the animal, and strikes the point into this marrow behind the horns, and the animal is dead on the instant. If he miss the place, the point enters the fat of the neck, and scarcely any pain is inflicted, and he has only to strike again, or keep striking until he hits the proper place. This system of killing has advantages which are likely to cause it to become general.

RETURNED.—The Reese River Reveille, of March 8th, says: "Messrs. Thomas C. Hall and Thomas Ward returned yesterday from a long prospecting tour to the southeast extending to the Vegas and south into California. In the Vegas mountains and in sections south of the Salt Lake and San Bernardino road they found some mineral bearing veins, but the metal was chiefly lead, and the country very poorly supplied with water. They were not satisfied with anything discovered outside of the Great Basin. They represent that Spring Mountain is very lofty and is supplied with timber equally as large and of as good quality as they had ever seen in the Sierra Nevada. Their companions with whom they left this city, they left Las Vegas on the 14th of February. It was their intention to return immediately. They are Messrs. John Hale, Wm. Adams, E. T. Martin, E. Brown, D. S. Strickland, Frank Colyer, and John Young. They were all well."

SERIOUS BLUNDER.—We learn that the Act passed by the late Legislature, organizing the new county of Lemhi, is not to be found on file in the office of the Secretary of the Territory, and consequently the law is inoperative. It is a strange, and we cannot but believe, a very reprehensible blunder on the part of some of the persons through whose hands it passed; for it seems the bill never reached the Governor.—Idaho World.

So it seems that Idaho county will claim Lemhi till the meeting of the next Legislature, and all county and court business will have to be transacted at Florence for the new mining District. This will work great inconvenience to the people of Lemhi.—Lewiston Journal.

JOHN MORRISSEY.—The Washington correspondent of the Chicago Republican, says the greatest curiosity to visitors in the House is John Morrissey, who continues to behave in a very quiet and proper manner. He sits as upright in his seat as a statue, never turns to the right or the left, never visits other members, and is seldom visited by others, although no one offers him any disrespect, or omits any proper attention. Knowing that he is such a prominent target, he conducts himself with the utmost indifference to surroundings, though never being entirely at his ease.

ELECTRIC LIGHT.—The electric light has been used on a large scale in the construction of the Northern Railway of Spain, to enable work to be done by night during hot weather, as well as in tunneling, where the absence of ordinary combustion and its products proved a great advantage. The entire expense involved in illuminating a space of 4,000 by 1,500 feet did not exceed, as reported, $1.75 per hour.

NATIVE SILVER.—The most celebrated silver mine in Europe is that of Konigsberg, in Norway, which is 180 fathoms deep. In the Museum of Natural History at Copenhagen an enormous mass of native silver is on exhibition, taken from this mine, which measures six feet in length, two feet in width, and eight inches thick, and is estimated to contain 500 pounds of pure silver.

THE Denver News of the 16th says: "Edward Perrin, a lad seventeen years of age, son of Mr. L. K. Perrin, well known to all our citizens, was instantly killed yesterday forenoon, by the accidental discharge of a gun in his own hands. The deceased was accompanied by a younger brother, and they were hunting rabbits in the vicinity of their parents' residence, on Clear Creek, in Jefferson County."

THE Colorado Register, of March 16th, says: "Mr. Drake, formerly operator in the telegraph office in this place, but now in the office at Omaha, informs us that the Missouri river at that point is still frozen over. The Pacific road has been cleared of snow, and is now in good running order. The Northwestern road is not yet open, but will be in a few days."

SUBTERRANEAN CITY RAILWAYS.—The London tunnel railway, with its enormous cost, from peculiar local conditions, of $5,500,000 per mile, has paid from the start—five per cent, in 1863, six and a half per cent, in 1864, and seven per cent, in 1865, which are considered very large returns for money invested in England. Over twenty millions of passengers were conveyed by it in 1866.

This Company having greatly enlarged their Refining Works, and introduced many other important improvements, are pleased to announce that they feel warranted in again reducing materially their terms of doing business.

The Tariff of Charges

Which they now submit to the public—considered with reference to the cost of material and labor—is lower than in any other part of the world, and secures to the mining interest of this coast an important increase in both the minting and commercial value of bullion.

Their charges hereafter will be as follows:

For Assaying Deposits for Unparted Gold Bars.

One-eighth of one per cent. (heretofore a quarter) for all amounts over $1,600, and two dollars for any smaller sum. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

For Assaying Deposits for Unparted Silver Bars.

Two dollars for the gold contained, up to $1,600, and one-eighth of one per cent. for all amounts over that sum, and one per cent. on the silver contained. Returns made in twenty-four hours.

For Refining Deposits made for Coin or Fine Bars.

On bullion under 300 parts gold, 2 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 4 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 6 cents per ounce.
On bullion from 750½@949½ parts gold, 8 cents per ounce.
Above 950 the only charge will be for coinage. But there will be no charge for refining less than two dollars.

For Coining Gold.

This charge will be the same as at the Mint—one half of one per cent.—and which is paid by us to that institution. But there will be no charge in future for making fine gold or silver bars from bullion refined by us.

Returns in Coin Made in Forty-Eight Hours.

Silver contained in deposits for coin will be accounted for at the same rate customary at the Mint.

Gold bars of other Assayers in good standing, will be cashed by us at the highest market rates.

Dust and bullion can be forwarded to us from any part of the country, and returns made through Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express.

Charges at U. S. Branch Mint.

For the convenience of those not familiar with the terms of the Mint, we subjoin the tariff of charges now in force at that Institution:

For refining bullion under 300 parts gold, 3 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 300½@600 parts gold, 5 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 600½@750 parts gold, 7 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 750½@830 parts gold, 11 cents per ounce.

For refining bullion from 830½@949½ parts gold, 14 cents per ounce.

The charge for coinage is half of one per cent., and the charge for making fine silver bars, the same.

Comparing the net value of deposits for coinage, with the proceeds of unparted gold bars sold in the market—assuming that the bars have cost ½ of one per cent.—they must be sold at the following par rates to equal the return which would have been made had they been deposited for coinage:

830 par to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 14 cents.

845 par to equal Mint return, at refining charge of 11 cents.

865 par to equal San Francisco A. & R. Works return, at refining charge of 8 cents. [mr21-3m-is

RTISERS.—The VEDETTE is the pioneer paper of Utah. Its extensive circulation in mining camp and city of Montana and Idaho, d it gives the telegraphic despatches a whole ahead of the Pacific papers,) makes it the most geous medium for advertising in these four Territories.

CE MATTERS.—At Judge Clinton's levee day, there were but two cases that pos-sufficient attraction to the public to note of. The first was that of a col-individual named Enoch Ables, who was d with selling a pair of single trees to ser Sumner, the same not being the ty of Enoch. The Judge soon decided , and imposed a fine of twenty-five , with the advice that Enoch should do no more." Enoch not having the , deposited security, and whether appeal is not known, as no notice
The second case was a charge of , against a young but poor and dilap-individual with the strange and unique e of "Jones," who apparently had ned this way of obtaining a living recently, as he appeared only about years of age. Jones said he was hund had no means to provide a meal of , and thinking Messrs. Klopstock & e segar and tobacco dealers of Main had some to spare, just dropped in and himself to the contents of their till.
remer, who was engaged writing in the part of store, espied him as he was leavd started after the thief, and most for-ly met a policeman at the door, who chase and secured his prisoner, whom veyed to the lock-up. Jones confessed ed, and threw himself on the mercy of ourt. Judge Clinton sent him up for days, where he could work, but not and Jones expressed himself satisfied is board was provided for at least a
, but also said if he had known this bewould have sooner procured board and g at the expense of the city and not continued so long at the risk of starving

ACT OF COURTESY.—The following is an t of a letter received by the worthy of the United States District Court, Mr.
Lynch, from Mr. E. B. Crocker, the of the Pacific Railroad Company, which last wending its way eastward from . While it speaks confidently of the prosecution of the enterprise, it serves strate the kindly interchange of civilihen genial spirits come in contact with other.

EN NUTMEGS BEATEN.—A lady friend was called upon one day last week by respectably dressed female, with a reof the article offered for sale, felt dis-

the Jenny Lind Theatre, for the benefit of very favorably, abounding in elo-

d on Sunday night and continued durday without scracely a moments ces-not even resting at meal hours. It quently put a stop to all out-door busi-and rendered the city quite dull, as the was not cold enough to warrant the a sleigh ride, but melted just fast to render thick boots and rubbers nec-for all street walkers. While we rehoused in our sanctum, the latest report it is still snowing.

TTER.—Snow, the usual accompaniment with most unseasonable tenacity. For few days we have been visited with storms that reminded us more of the of December and January than that close of March. The snow, though in considerable quantities during the retires with becoming grace on the ap-of "old Sol," thus evincing the grad-yielding of Winter to the soft influences genial Spring.

E LATE ACCIDENT.—In noticing the rey of Mr. Boyle, who recently shot him-through the hand, we had misunderstood patient, and was made to say the ball had touched the bones of the hand. We deto correct the error by saying the ball had ered the bone of the middle finger, and the [illegible] By reference to our telegraphic dispatches it will be seen that Congress has passed an act appropriating a large sum of money for the relief of sufferers in the South. This is as it should be. The people of the South have laid down their arms, acknowledged themselves vanquished, and no one but of the Beast Butler stamp would be willing to visit vengeance on inoffensive women and children for the cruelties practised at Libby and Andersonville. The Sacramento Union of the 14th inst. justly says:

It is not well for the Government to make a practise of voting to aid in cases of local and exceptional suffering, which ought to be met by the local authorities or private benevolence. The precedent set in the case of Portland was not a good one. The country at large is rich and generous enough to meet all such exigencies fully. If Government once begins to make itself the almoner of charity to communities suffering by flood, fire or storm, there will be no end to the calls after its funds. But the case of the starving people in the South is quite extraordinary. The Government has assumed exclusive jurisdiction there, and has already in legal operation a regular relief bureau. A special relief appropriation, to be disbursed either through that bureau or private associations acting in harmony with it, is not only proper, but may be regarded in the light of a sacred duty. It would be cause for regret if Butler's proposition to revenge the barbarities of Andersonville and Libby upon starving women and children were adopted. Neither would we have money voted merely in a spirit of "noble revenge" on the scriptural principle. The question is simply one of humanity and duty and relief should be given on that ground alone. The North has taken care already of its own sufferers from the war, its maimed soldiers, its widows and orphans, and it can afford also to help the victims of rebellion at the South who are not able to help themselves.

THE NATIONAL FLAG.—On this subject the Call of the 15th thus descants:

Congress having formally declared that ten of the former States of the Union have ceased to be States—are simply Territories, or conquered provinces—that body should take some steps to reconstruct the National flag. According to law, the National standard can properly have on its union only one star for each State in the Union. A flag having more or less stars than there are States is not the flag of any Nation, much less a United States flag. In order that the flags now in general use by the Army, Navy, etc., should conform to the statute and the existing state of affairs, there should be only twenty-six stars on the union until after the next fourth of July, when the twenty-seventh should be added for Nebraska. Three years ago, if a man happened to exhibit a flag with only twenty-four or twenty-six stars on it he was denounced as a traitor. Now, according to law and the Acts of Congress, the flag has no right to more than twenty-six stars. Neither Southern, Western, nor any other Territories have any business to be represented on the flag.

LOOKING AROUND.—Among those in town looking after their interests in connection with the next election, are Geo. S. Evans, candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, and Chas. F. Reed, candidate for Surveyor-General. The former is the present Adjutant-General, and hails from Tuolumne County; the latter has for the last four years filled the unlucrative office of President of the State Agricultural Society, and hails from Yolo County, in which he has been extensively engaged for years as a farmer and stock raiser. He was educated as a civil engineer at West Point.—S. F. Call.

THE RICHARDSON-MCFARLAND AFFAIR. A New York dispatch, dated March 15, says:

A. D. Richardson's assailant is to be re-arrested and tried for assault with intent to kill. Richardson's friends say a rigid investigation will show that he was acting simply as a friendly protector against the uncontrolable frenzy of the husband, against whom Mrs. McFarland had instituted proceedings for a separation, on the grounds of cruelty and refusal to provide for the family.

INDIAN MISSIONARY.—The Leavenworth Times says:

Father Desmet, a well known Catholic missionary among the Indians, has been delegated by the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, to proceed on a mission of pacification among the Yanktons and Sioux. He is now preparing for the journey.

FIREMEN'S VISIT.—A deputation of the New York firemen's Association, will make a visit to Richmond, Charleston, and Columbia, S. C., next month, taking with them a $4,000 hose carriage, as a present to the firemen of the last named city. Extensive preparations are being made to entertain the visitors.

THE young Jew Mortara, whose abduction some years back caused such excitement in Europe, has just entered the Church of St. Peter's at Rome, as a novice, before joining the order of the regular canons of St. Jean-de-Latran, [illegible] is now fifteen years old.
